Supplement 2-87

August 24, 1987

The Foreign Agricultural Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture today reported the following developments in world agriculture and trade.

U.S. AGRICULTURAL TRADE

Export volume for June 1987 totaled 10 million tons, up 48 percent from the 6.8 million tons exported during June 1986, but down 3 percent from May 1987 levels. June agricultural export value totaled $2.07 billion, up $388 million (23 percent) over June 1986, but down 5 percent from May 1987 levels. Grain and feed sales continued strong, accounting for much of the year-to-year increase. However, significant gains also were registered in exports of raw cotton and soybeans as well as a number of high-value products such as dairy products, cattle hides, poultry, beef, and fresh fruits and vegetables.

Export volume during the first 9 months of fiscal 1987 totaled 95.3 million tons, up 12 percent from the same period a year earlier. The largest volume gainers overall are wheat, coarse grains, rice, feeds and fodders, soybean meal, cotton, poultry products, furskins, beef and fresh fruits. Some factors responsible for the increase in export volume are the lower dollar, the export enhancement and targeted export assistance programs which have opened and expanded markets, and the lower loan rates associated with the Food Security Act of 1985.

Cumulative U.S. agricultural exports during October-June totaled $21 billion, up $184 million (1 percent) from the same period a year earlier. Lower world prices for major grain and feed products remain the major reason for the only slightly improved dollar value of total agricultural exports since export volume to date is up 12 percent. The latest USDA trade forecasts (as of May) project fiscal 1987 exports at $27.5 billion and 127.5 million tons, up 4 percent and 16 percent, respectively, from last year. The Department's final export forecasts for fiscal 1987 will be released on August 27.

Imports for June totaled $1.77 billion, up 10 percent from June 1986. Major contributors to the increase were fruits and vegetables (up $112 million or 22 percent), beef and veal (up $55 million or 51 percent) and fruit juices (up $20 million or 40 percent). June's figures bring the October-June agricultural import total to $15.8 billion, virtually unchanged from last year. The present USDA import forecast for fiscal 1987 is $20 billion, down 5 percent from last year.

June's agricultural trade surplus was $303 million, down $176 million from May, but the 11th month in a row the United States has had a surplus. June's performance brings the trade surplus during the first 9 months of fiscal 1987 to $5.2 billion, up $262 million from the $4.9 billion level of the same period last year. The fiscal 1987 trade surplus is forecast at $7.5 billion--up from $5.4 billion in fiscal 1986.
